

The Horsham and the Hatboro Police Departments Citizens Police Academy

The Horsham Police Department and the Hatboro Police Department will hold the tenth Citizens' Police Academy this Fall beginning Wednesday, September 13 and ending with a graduation on Wednesday, November 15. The classes will start at 7PM and run until 9:30PM with a 15 minute coffee break.

The Academy is open to citizens of Horsham Township, the Borough of Hatboro and their surrounding communities. At the completion of the course there will be a graduation ceremony and participants will be awarded a certificate. The graduates will become members of the Horsham and Hatboro Citizen's Police Academy Alumni.

During the 10 weeks the participants will become familiar with the way the Police perform their duties. Topics will include accident investigations, the Pennsylvania Crimes Code and Vehicle Code, Police K-9, FireArms, Use of Force, Drug Awareness, Crime Scene Processing and other interesting and timely topics . Police Officers from Horsham and Hatboro will instruct the classes.

There is no charge to participate! Anyone wishing to participate must complete an application available at either the Horsham Police Station at 1025 Horsham Road, Horsham, Pa 19044 or the Hatboro Police Station at 120 E. Montgomery Ave., Hatboro, Pa. 19040. Applications may also be downloaded at www.horsham.org (under police department). Any questions may be directed to Horsham Police Lieutenant Jon Clark at 215-643-3600 or Hatboro Police Sergeant Pete VanDolsen at 215-675-2832.

Many people go through life as spectators. Many spectators can only complain about the way things are in their neighborhood. We urge the community to stop sitting back and watching, but to PARTICIPATE! This is an excellent opportunity to meet and interact with the members of the Horsham and Hatboro Police Departments! It is a very comfortable atmosphere where participants may ask basically any question and gain valuable insight into how the police department operates.
